- 4. The installation on Geschwister Scholl Strasse in Berlin quartered VP Bereitschaft No 3, which consisted of 700 to 800 men, who wore blue uniforms. They were charged with guard missions in Berlin. Numerous VPs who had previously served with the KVP were attached to the unit. VP Bereitschaft Rummelsburg was moving to the building of the VP Inspektion on Seelenbinderstrasse in Berlin-Koepenick. Another VP Bereitschaft was stationed at the former headquarters of the LBDVP Saxony on Dr. Kurt Fischer Strasse in Dresden No 15. This Bereitschaft numbered about 300 men who were blue uniforms. The u it participated in the search operations for the Czech refugees in the Cottbus area.
- 5. About late October, a school of the border police moved from Gotha to the former Luftwaffen Kaserne in Suhl. In Suhl, the school was redesignated VP Zentralschule "C". While the school in Gotha was attended by about 150 mm, from 200 to 300 students were being trained in Suhl during the reporting period. About the same time a new VP border police school was being set up at the former explosives plant in Doemitz. The school was attended by 200 to 300 students who were green service color. Infantry and weapons training was observed. An officer school of the border police at a former tarracks installation in Sondershausen on the road to Kelbra was attended by about 500 students who were green service color. The courses given there lasted four months.
